

La Loge is seeking a curatorial & communications intern

About

La Loge is a Brussels-based space dedicated to contemporary art, architecture and theory that began its activities in 2012. Its aim is to develop a high-quality program that plays a critical role in today's cultural conversations through specific and precise projects. Architects, artists, curators and cultural agents are invited to develop propositions in which they seek out the characteristic and the peculiar within their practices. La Loge is a space where ideas, discussion and presentation coexist.

Public formats vary depending on the project; from exhibitions, symposiums, screenings, lectures, and performances to events' series. La Loge's identity is drawn from the architectural gem that houses it, as well as from the commitment and concerns of its founders. The small-scale format of La Loge contributes to a context where intimate and direct conversations with its audience and the diversity of protagonists it invites can be initiated and sustained.

Description

The curatorial intern will work closely with the curatorial and communication team of La Loge and will collaborate in the preparation of exhibitions, public programmes, communications and day-to-days activities. He/she/they will provide curatorial assistance for exhibitions and projects (research, production and mediation). He/she/they will work on the different communication materials of La Loge, update the archives website and set up management and press strategies. The intern will be responsible for the coordination of the volunteers. The internship is the perfect opportunity for bachelor or master students and young professionals to gain experience in the day-to-day activities of a small-scale nonprofit organisation. The internship will take place at La Loge (Kluisstraat 86 rue de l'Ermitage, Brussels).

Please be aware this is an unpaid position.

Requirements

- Knowledge of English and ideally also French or Dutch
- Sound knowledge of basic software, Microsoft Word, Acrobat Indesign, Photoshop
- Excellent skills in written and verbal communication
- Excellent organisational skills
- The ability to manage time efficiently, and handle several projects simultaneously
- The ideal candidate will be highly motivated. He/she/they will have great interest for and a good understanding of contemporary art, architecture and cultural debates at large

Availability

The internship requires a commitment of two or three days per week. During exhibitions we expect availabilities on Thursday and Friday, from 10:00 to 18:00, with occasional longer hours during events. During installation and deinstallation periods we expect availabilities from Wednesday to Friday, from 10:00 to 18:00. The internship starts in October/November and runs for a minimum period of three month.

To apply

Please send us an email stating your interest and motivations for this position, along with your CV. To: info@la.loge.be with 'internship + your name' in the subject field.
(Applications can be written in French, Dutch or English)

Deadline: September 04